Diamond Jubilee

First established in 1883 as DeLand Academy, Stetson University celebrates its 75th anniversary — the Diamond Jubilee. Since its founding by Mr. Henry A. DeLand 75 years ago, many changes have come over the school. As years passed the campus gradually increased in size, and as it grew physically, it grew also in the esteem of the people of the South. Spiritual and intellectual enrichment and an enthusiastic approach to life, are the rewards gained by students of Stetson University. It is for these rewards that we are most grateful as we celebrate Stetson's Diamond Jubilee.

THE PAST

In 1884, DeLand Hall, the oldest building on campus was erected. Then in 1886 the attention of Mr. John B. Stetson, the hat manufacturer, was attracted to the thriving young college, and he gave freely of his time and his wealth toward its advancement. In 1887 a charter was obtained from the State incorporating the school as DeLand University. In 1889, at the request of Mr. DeLand, the name of DeLand University was changed to John B. Stetson University. It was not long before the University found additional friends. Buildings on the campus erected by them testify to their devotion to the cause of education in Florida and their confidence in the future of Stetson.

Students of the past congregate on the steps of Elizabeth Hall.

A Stetson professor gives enlightening lectures to his co-ed chemistry class.

Chaudoin Parlor was the social center for these young co-eds.

Assigned seats in chapel separated the men from the ladies in 1900.

Attired in skirts and stockings were the physical education students.

These are the Stetson men of the gridiron in 1902.

Laboratory procedure for the chemistry students is supervised by the instructor.

Artistic ability were cultivated by many hours of work.

the Present

"Pro Deo et Veritate," For God and Truth. . . .

The purpose of Stetson University is to send out educated Christian men and women to make the world a better place in which to live. The ideal of the University is to develop in each individual a scholarly attitude, culture, and Christian character.

The entire program of the University aids in physical, mental, social, emotional, aesthetic, moral and spiritual development of the individual. With such an ideal, such a purpose and such a program, Stetson University is growing mightily.

Dr. and Mrs. Edmunds and their daughter, Jane, greet the freshmen at a formal reception held in Stetson Union. This is one of the highlights of their orientation program.

Mr. Sartain pauses to greet two Stetson students on their way to class.

Elizabeth Hall, the Administration Building, is the gift of Mr. John B. Stetson and bears the name of his wife. A three-story structure, in the style of the Spanish renaissance, it contains the administrative offices, the art museum, the auditorium, and many of the class rooms. It is often referred to as the center of Stetson's intellectual life.

This engineering student exemplifies one of the purposes of the University which is to help each student find and prepare for the particular vocation for which he or she is fitted by ability, aptitude and character.

This student depicts a phase of campus life which develops appreciation of beauty—in music, art, literature, nature, thought and living.

Stetson students practice teaching under University intern program.

Brick and block soon to be another new residence hall for men.

You've heard our case, we love our school, but we know it would improve with a swimming pool!

Dedication

"We are all together . . . Working toward a common goal."

From the first day of classes in 1883 with an attendance of 13, until now with the 1958 enrollment of approximately 1400 students, the ideal of Stetson University has been "to develop in each individual a scholarly attitude, culture, and Christian character." This ideal has been fulfilled, and along with the qualities mentioned there has developed in each graduate of Stetson a love for the school and for all that has made it great.

Stetson was conceived as an institution where young men and women could obtain a liberal education under Christian influences and ideals. What we think of as the Stetson Spirit is a result of students working and playing together, and sharing moments both serious and gay. It is to the Stetson Spirit—a spirit of togetherness, of love, and of high standards, that the 1958 Hatter is dedicated.

ADMINISTRATION

The standing of a college or a university depends on the faculty and the program of studies offered.

The first statement to be made about the faculty in the College of Liberal Arts, Business and Music at John B. Stetson University is that they are all scholars. They have been trained in the best graduate schools in America and Europe. A majority of them hold the Ph.D. degree. They have been selected to teach in Stetson because of their ability to impart truth and knowledge. Each one is an outstanding example of the enriching and ennobling power of learning, and each one is an aggressive leader in the promotion of study and the creative activities of the mind among his students.

Again, each member of the faculty has been selected to teach at Stetson because he is a person with a great heart, a person who has an abiding faith in the goodness of God, a person who believes in the joy and worth of life, a person who loves youth, a person who is a loyal philosopher-friend of college students.

STETSON'S PRESIDENT

J. OLLIE EDMUNDS
President

To the Members of the Stetson Family
Everywhere:

As we approach the Diamond Jubilee of the commencement of higher education in the State of Florida, and consider the role of Stetson in the last quarter of its first century, our entire administrative staff is quite excited with fresh hope about the future. All of us—trustees, faculty, and students—believe that in this future, we face the dawn of a new day.

Woodrow Wilson, whose 100th birthday anniversary we recently celebrated, very early in his work as President of Princeton University, wrote:

"We grow great by dreams—some of us let these dreams die, but others nourish and protect them, nurse them through bad days till they bring them to the sunshine and light which come always to those who sincerely hope that their dreams will come true."

On this, my tenth anniversary as President of Stetson University, my sincere prayer is that those who love Stetson will not let the dreams of our Founding Fathers die. The time has arrived when we must bring these dreams to sunshine and light.

Faithfully yours,
J. OLLIE EDMUNDS
President

LIBERAL ARTS SCHOOL

WILLIAM H. McENIRY
Dean of Liberal Arts School

The College of Liberal Arts is the oldest and largest of the four university colleges. Elizabeth Hall, Flagler Science Hall and Holmes Hall comprise the classroom area. While attending Stetson, every student comes in contact with the Liberal Arts School. It is the core of the education of every student, from the business student to the music or law major. The Liberal Arts prepares students to enter the world, to earn gainful employment, and instills them with a permanent love and appreciation of the arts, letters and sciences which surround us. This in itself gives an added enjoyment and enrichment to our lives.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

EDWARD C. FURLONG
Dean of School of Business

The School of Business was established in 1940. It is housed in its own building on the main campus. The college graduate entering business without special preparation suffers a handicap; similarly one who confines his study to business is handicapped. The program of the School of Business, therefore, is a combination of academic and business subjects. The Faculty endeavors to cultivate in students those qualities of mind and character that will make useful citizens with high ideals of business morality and social responsibility. Students are encouraged to acquire a clear understanding of modern industrial society and of their responsibilities and opportunities in it.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

CLAUDE M. ALMAND
1915-1957

The Stetson School of Music is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music. The school prepares students for the music professions, including the teaching of music in the public schools and the directing of church music. There is a preparatory department for children and for students whose previous training has been insufficient. The School is housed in DeLand Hall and Annex with separate facilities for the bands and the orchestra in the Band Hall. A specialized music library supplements the music literature collections of the University Library.

Classes

The classes of the year 1957-58 have memories to share, seventy-five years of memories stored up since the founding of DeLand University. There are memories of changes in styles of clothing, in manners of speech, and in methods of teaching. There are memories, too, of Sampson Library, the center of Stetson's academic activities.

Once called the DeLand University Library, it was organized in 1888 by Dr. Warren Stone Gordis, and located in DeLand Hall. In 1889 the library was named in honor of Mr. C. T. Sampson, because of his great interest and generosity. Two years later it was moved into Elizabeth Hall, where more spacious quarters were provided.

The Carnegie Library was erected in 1909. The building was given by Andrew Carnegie, and an endowment of $40,000 was provided by Elizabeth, the Countess of Santa Eulalia. The book collection by this time had grown from 1,200 or 1,300 volumes to 15,000. By 1957, with about 71,000 books and bound periodicals and over 100,000 items in the U.S. Documents Division, the present building was filled to capacity.

The future beckons too; and as the seniors look forward to a world where books come to life, the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors can look forward to sharing the plans that will be made in 1958 for the building of a newer, larger, and more convenient library.

THE SENIOR CLASS

Dreams have been built and have tumbled—to rise in altered form. Problems have been faced—and overcome. The bull session, the courses, the class elections—all are passing too rapidly. But the world is waiting just beyond June, and there are only a few moments for regrets.

The Senior Class is facing graduation, and already college is a series of memories. To the Juniors they leave the privileges and dignity of seniority. Soon, in black robes, they will file out of college life and into a big new world.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Positions of responsibility. Graduation comes some time after the Senior year—too far away to think about. For now, the Juniors are making plans, a whole year of plans. This year has been so full. So many honoraries tapped; the Student Union Building Opened. Next year will be even more exciting—and busier. Everyone is waiting for next year, the biggest year of all.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

It was a real thrill to be back Orientation Week—this time as Student Advisors, Ratters, and fraternity and sorority members. Classes began again . . . who could ever forget the hours we spent in Humanities listening labs, absorbing culture and sophistication. We were sure that we had learned how to study, but we became so swamped with activities that we sometimes forgot.

For the first time we became council members, organization officers, and S.G.A. committee chairmen. Approaching the end of the year, our awe of upperclassmen began to fade, as we discovered our own ability to assume the places of leadership they were leaving behind. Now we look forward to next year, when the freshmen will look to us as the "campus wheels."

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

From Rat Week to Rush, we ran the gamut from serfts to kings. We loved the Student Union Building, but it seemed to us that it had always been here. Soccer and Basketball, fraternity serenades, Stover Theatre productions . . . we began to think we knew all about college life.

Then grades hit us . . . what a shock, after all that fun! At Homecoming we learned more of Stetson's traditions . . . campus politics excited us in the annual Hostess-Mayor campaign. Exhausted, we sighed a moment, then plunged into the soeial whirl of fraternity week-ends and Hatter Holiday in the spring. As the seniors marched down the graduation aisle, we said goodbye to them and to a wonderful year . . . our first year at college.

Vanity Fair

"There is always room for beauty: Memory
A myraid lovely blossoms
may enclose
But what e'er hath been,
There still must be room for another rose."

And so it is this year.

Stetson's residence halls have housed many a beautiful girl since they were first built, and every coming year more girls will arrive, each one lovely in her own way. Because of the almost intangible nature of beauty, it is a difficult task to choose girls who are representative of this quality; but we feel that on the following pages are pictured girls whose shining hair, bright eyes, and pleasant expression will suit the tastes of all.

Activities

Stetson students have organized themselves into all the varied groups customarily found on a small, friendly campus. There are eight religious organizations, more than two dozen professional or departmental groups such as Future Teachers or Scabbard and Blade, the band, the orchestra, the glee clubs, the opera workshop, and six social fraternities and six sororities.

In addition to athletics, there are dramatic and literary activities centering around the Stover Theatre with its wide variety of interest. Student publications include THE HATTER (yearbook), THE REPORTER (campus newspaper, the oldest in the state), and the literary magazine. There is a continuing sequence of concerts and recitals, lectures, forums, discussion groups, vesper services, special religious events, and social affairs. Many of these activities are centered in the new Stetson Union which has its own additional recreational facilities.

50th YEAR

DR. IRVING C. STOVER

Dr. Irving C. Stover, now in his fiftieth consecutive year as a member of the faculty, has literally "grown up" with Stetson University. His record of service to the university, the community, the state of Florida and to the nation far overshadows even the unusual record of length of service he has established. Just as Dr. Stover pioneered in the founding of the speech and drama department, he was also a founder of Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic honorary fraternity, of which he later served as national president.

Organizations

Creating opportunities for students to use their talents and acquire practical experience in their vocations; the organizations on campus benefit both University and student.

Organizations for every purpose and every person are present on campus. The focus varies from scholarship to fun, from education to entertainment; and for that reason, students frequently find themselves in several groups at once.

Honoraries have been formed to acknowledge those who are worthy, those who rise above the crowd for several reasons. Heading the list is Omicron Delta Kappa for men and the Honor of women, as their members are chosen for leadership and service as well as scholarship.

Exceptional work and ability in fields such as chemistry, history, drama, are recognized through honoraries in individual departments and subjects. Religious groups on campus are representative of most major denominations and their work is coordinated through the Student Christian Association, an inter-denominational body in charge of college wide programs such as vespers, and Religious Emphasis Week.

Professional information and skills are presented to those interested in obtaining them through the various professional clubs such as the Florida Student Educational Association and Physical Education Professional Club.

There are also performing groups on our campus such as the Stetson Glee Club, Stetson Orchestra and Stetson Band. Each contributes much to the enjoyable life of the campus. The opposite page features a pose of the Stetson Majorettes: Harriett Redding, Diane Ferguson, and Barbara Jerigen and head majorette Ray Jean Cassiola.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

JIM HODGE
President

This has been a year of progress for the Student Government Association. Seeking to become the true voice of the student body, and to act in the best interests of the students and of Stetson University, the SGA revised its constitution this year so as to include adequate representation from all phases of campus life on the President's Cabinet. This cabinet can now more adequately serve as a coordinating body for various student organizations as well as an effective group for cooperating with University authorities for the common good of the institution.

The SGA has served as the core for school sponsored activities. It is responsible for assisting in the activities of Freshman Orientation week, the conducting of the Green Feather drive, the supervising of campus elections, the planning of Homecoming and Hatter Holiday as well as the promoting of an adequate student social program.

The Stetson social calendar was enlarged this year to feature concerts by such nationally known personalities as "The Four Freshmen" and "Joni James." This was the first visit to our campus for such personalities.

A step was taken this year in the direction of true student self government. This was possible only through the cooperation of the entire student body.

Thanks for a successful year.

Sincerely,

Jim Hodge, Pres.

Programs are held Sunday night with a supper meeting the first of each month. The foundation co-operates through representation on the S.C.A. Council in interdenominational activities such as Religious Focus Week, Christmas events and Lenten Morning Watch. The program is planned and carried out by student officers and members. A director and an associate director serve as supervisors and counselors for the Foundation.

The first biology fraternity at Stetson was organized under the name of Beta Key in 1937 with Dr. Cornelia Smith as advisor. On April 9, 1947, Dr. P. A. Yancey installed the Beta Xi Chapter of Beta Beta Beta at Stetson. There are 76 other chapters in the United States, Asia, and the Caribbean region. Beta Beta Beta is affiliated with the American Society for the Advancement of Science and has the three-fold purpose of increasing interest in biology, stimulating sound scholarship and encouraging biological research. Each spring the Beta Xi Chapter sponsors a science fair where high school students of this region exhibit projects and are shown demonstrations in the physical and biological labs. They have, in the past, played host twice to the Southeastern Beta Beta Beta Convention and this year to the Florida Academy of Science.

Fraternities

To have a circle of loyal friends, to have the assurance of a personal niche, of "belonging"—these desires are deep and undeniable. And they are the reason for enduring strength of fraternities. It is perfectly true that one can have a happy, valuable college career without being a fraternity member, but for most college men and women fraternity membership makes adjustment to college easier and quicker, and makes enjoyment of college days more complete. A fraternity is your "college family."

A fraternity is also a valuable training group, because it seeks to develop each individual, but not at the expense of the group. As individuals work and play together, the rough edges of selfishness and thoughtlessness are bound to be rubbed off.

The value of a fraternity cannot be measured, because you receive in proportion to what you give. It will cost you not only in dollars and cents, but in time. Time to study, so that your scholarship will meet fraternity standards. Time to participate in activities that will broaden your interests and develop your talents. Time for service to your chapter, your campus, your community. Time and effort in developing character, standards, and leadership. Of course, in all this your fraternity gains—but YOU gain most.

Even after college years, your fraternity will enlarge your circle of friends and your horizon. You will have a bond not only with members of your own fraternity, but with all Greek letter men and women. The fraternity system with its enviable philanthropies and enduring friendships has been thriving for over 100 years.

GAMMA CHI CHAPTER

ALPHA CHI OMEGA was founded in 1885 at De Pauw University in Greencastle, Indiana. It is the sixth American Greek-letter fraternity for women. The badge of Alpha Chi is the golden lyre; the colors are scarlet and olive green.

The Gamma Chi Chapter of Stetson University was installed in the Spring of 1957. Their first rush season was the Fall of 1957, after which the chapter pledged twenty-six outstanding girls. In the months that it has been on the Stetson campus, Alpha Chi has contributed much to campus activities. It has participated in and won second place in the Interfraternity Sing. It has sponsored parties for the Methodist Children's Home, and has contributed members and officers to many campus activities. Among Alpha Chi's activities are: Sigma Pi Kappa; Phi Beta, Mollie Sandiford, Secretary; La Francaide, Marilyn Lazarus, President, and Susan Sargent, Vice-president; Theta Alpha Phi; Tau Beta Sigma; Phi Society; Sigma Delta Pi, Susan Sargent, President; International Club; House Council; Cheerleading; Hatter Staff; Player's Guild; Reporter Staff; and Class Officers. Janet Reisinger was chosen last year as the Best Dressed Woman on Campus. Alpha Chi was represented at Washington Semester by Nancy Allen.

In addition to its efforts in the fields of education, the fine arts, and civic service, Alpha Chi has chosen an altruistic project, the Cerebral Palsy Project. National Alpha Chi activities for victims of Cerebral Palsy include scholarships for medical students; the publication of pattern books for self-help toys; and financial aid to hospitals. The Gamma Chi Chapter plans to join their alumnae through the contribution of time and money to the cause.

FLORIDA ALPHA CHAPTER

Pi Beta Phi was founded as I. C. Sorosis in 1867, one of the first national fraternities for women. It is one of the three largest women's fraternities. The Florida Alpha Chapter was established on Stetson's campus in May, 1913, and thus became the first national Pan-Hellenic organization on the campus.

The Pi Phis sponsored the first aid to underprivileged of any fraternity, when they started the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, our national philanthropic project.

The manufacturer of Pierce Arrow cars named his cars in honor of his wife's fraternity, and the arrow on the Parker fountain pen is in honor of Pi Phi. Miss America of 1958 is Marilyn Van Derbur, a Pi Phi from Colorado.

Pi Phis are outstanding in all phases of campus life. Members of The Honor, the highest Women's leadership honorary on campus, are Merrill Maguire, President; Carol Belcher, Historian; Jo Boswell, Judy Hill, and Carolyn Miller. Pi Phi is represented in the Glee Club by Judy Hill and Juanita Gresham, and in Travel Squad by Pat Painter, Julee Urquhart, Merrill Maguire, and Nola Frink. Marion Ezell is a cheerleader, and Pi Phi's hold membership in Sigma Pi Kappa, Beta Beta Beta, Sigma Delta Pi, Tau Beta Sigma, and Phi Society. Carol Howell received the Freshman Scholarship Prize, with a 3.0 average. Pi Phis also participate in Women's Council, and work on the Reporter and Hatter staffs.

This year two Pi Phis were named to Who's who in American Colleges and Universities—Carol Belcher and Merrill Maguire.

Pi Phis are noted for winning honors in the beauty field. This year Janet Yonge was chosen Sweetheart of Pi Kappa Alpha, Buffy Ezell was Orange Bowl finalist and runner-up to the Azalea Queen, and Patti Lowe was chosen for the Hatter Court of Beauty, was an R.O.T.C. sponsor, and was a calendar girl, along with Melinda Freeman. Juanita Gresham was a finalist in the Miss DeLand Contest, and Martha Hamilton and Melinda Freeman were chosen "Indies" Girl-of-the-Month.

ZETA TAU CHAPTER

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA was first founded at Boston university on Nov. 2, 1909 and has since grown to be the largest International Fraternity with 153 chapters.

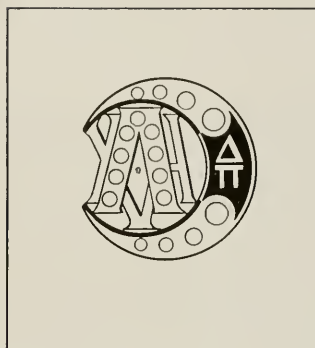

The colors are purple, green and gold, and the flower is the white rose.

The local chapter, Zeta Tau, was founded April 3, 1949.

The latest improvements, a patio and barbecue pit, provide the atmosphere for many starlit dances and parties. Although the "Lambs" enjoy many such occasions, they don't sacrifice scholarship. They took first among fraternities in scholarship both semesters of 1956-57.

Some of the outstanding men on campus include: Bill Liles, President of I. C. F.; Jack Selph, treasurer of Business School, and Bill Able, Vice President Senior Class.

Some of the prominent alumni of Lambda Chi Alpha include: Frankie Laine, Harry Truman, General Doolittle, Chester Gould, and Bill Hayes.

CHI CHAPTER

PI KAPPA PHI was founded at the University of Charleston, South Carolina, in 1904 and gave to Stetson University the Chi Chapter in February of 1921. Of the 52 chapters and 40,000 Pi Kappas, Chi Chapter recently retired the National Champion Chapter rating again this year. The Chi Chapter has in the past been known for its scholastic and academic prowess and has again this year shown achievement in this field. The president of ODK is Malcolm Glass and serving under him in that organization we find Jim Hodge, Phil Parr, and Bob Carnes. Working presently on the Honors Program is Phil Arms, Malcolm Glass, Jim Geiger, Phil Parr, and Bob Carnes. Circling the campus we find Jim Hodge presiding over the S. G. A., Bob Carnes holding the reins in the L. A. School and Phil Parr guiding the BSU. Also we have Reynolds Allen serving as Pres. of the Sophomore Class, Phil Parr presiding over the Jr. Class and Gary Meadows taking the chores of Vice President in the L. A. Department. Several Pi Kapps can be found on stage in major roles at Stover Theater. The Glee Club claims another portion of our brothers. We are well represented in Canterbury Club, B. S. U. and other major religious organizations. In the past years Pi Kappa Phi has taken the I. F. C. trophy and last year we captured the Hatter Holiday trophy. Athletically speaking one can find several Pi Kapps on the baseball diamond and as top contenders in most intramural fields.

DELTA MU CHAPTER

SIGMA NU, the first chartered national social fraternity at Stetson, came to the campus in 1913. The present chapter house was raised in 1923 and is the center of the Snake's social activities. Sigma Nu promotes scholarship, strives to build sound character and personality in its members by the examples of upper classmen, and in general adjust the new students to college life. Sigma Nu, as always, has been outstanding in all phases of campus life. The black and Gold boasts leaders in almost every campus organization. Brother Conner and Saltrick are Co-captains of the baseball team. Schneider, Gregory, Kitchens, Parker, and Carson all Sigma Nu's, lead the basketball team to a winning season. Brothers Woodall and Conner have been elected to Who's Who. Sharpton, the President, along with Mosely and Gregory are on Mens Council. In the Business School, Mel Gregory is the President and Bil Bradley the Vice President. Brother Marcell, the President of the Student Union Board is also a member of the Honors Program. Brother Woodall is President of the Senior Class, Ski Club, and Battle Group Commander of ROTC, as well as Vice President of ODK of which Brothers Marcell and Connor are also members. Brother White is Business Manager of Hatter and Brother Holmes is the SGA social Vice-President.

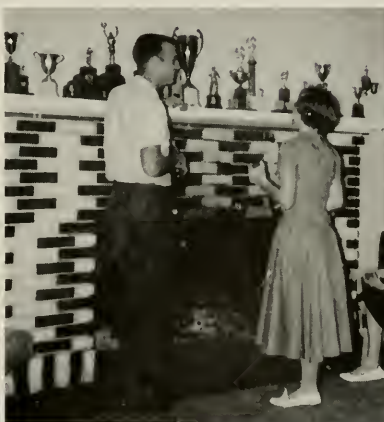

The Snakes also claim many honors as a group such as the Presidents Cup in Intramurals which they have held for four years straight. Nu inaugurated early in the year an intra fraternity party at the pit in hopes of bettering fraternity relations on Campus.

Long a key organization on Stetson's campus, Sigma Nu is justly proud of its leadership in all phases of university community.

CHI MU CHAPTER

IN 1949 THE CHI MU local fraternity on Stetson's campus petitioned the second largest fraternity in the world, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and the same year became the Florida Beta Chapter. The national Fraternity was founded at Richmond College in 1901.

Dean E. C. Furlong, Dr. John V. Vaughan, Dr. William Bliss and Mr. Graves Edmondson are prominent alumni on campus. National figures who wear the Sig Ep Heart are Ben Hibbs, Ted Mack, James V. Forrestal, Tom Ewel, Governor Dan McCarty, Woody Herman, John Barrow, All-American Tackle, and numerous others.

A highlight of the Sig Ep's social is their annual weekend climaxed by the Queen of Heart's Ball, held in February. The Founder's Day Banquet and the fraternity parties supplement the social calendar, along with cool afternoons spent on the new Sig Ep Beach.

Other officers include Mel Gregory, Vice-President; Jack Woodall, Secretary, and Allan Fagan, Treasurer. Other members are Gaither Briggs, James Hendrickson, Harold Basham, Gene Burrell, Charles Gerding, and associate member, Captain Dorsey B. Greene, Jr. The honorary is sponsored by Major Malcolm D. Brannen. This group with their outstanding achievements in military sciences is an inspiration to a freshman cadet.

SUMMER CAMP

At summer camp in Fort Benning, Ga., the cadets experience a rigorous six weeks of Army life. Many hours of drill, learning to use a machine gun, practical training and polish-shoes. It was surely a delight to all when Dean Furlong, Dean of the Business School, came to visit. Dining with him are Tom Bouchlas, Mark Anthony and Phil Yonge. Pictured below are the eighteen cadets which composed the Stetson unit. With this excellent opportunity to gain experience the R.O.T.C. has become the nation's chief source of obtaining young officers. The R.O.T.C. furnished these Stetson men with a well rounded program of physical, scholastic and mental training that will prepare them to face the future with a feeling of security and faith.

A QUEEN IS CROWNED

Sports

Athletics are an integral part of the student's program at Stetson. Intercollegiate teams in soccer, basketball, baseball, tennis and golf regularly meet teams from leading institutions in the Southeast and intersectional teams from such Universities as Amherst, Ohio State, Yale, Louisville and Dayton.

A new athletic field for men will provide facilities for track and field sports. Plans for a swimming pool are under way which will open the way for intercollegiate competition in still another sport. Soccer is played on Hulley Field; baseball at Conrad Park or Hulley Field and basketball at the National Guard Armory. Without facilities for golf, Stetson participated in the Florida Intercollegiate, but did not have an intercollegiate schedule.

The basketball team went to District 5 NAIA tournament, but lost in the finals. The team placed second in the Florida Intercollegiate Basketball Conference. The soccer team was second in the state conference.

Rivarly in intramural sports is almost as keen at Stetson as interest in intercollegiate contests. The great majority of Stetson men and women participate in intramural sports.

Stetson is proud of her athletic record as a football team wearing the Green and White played a team from Florida Agricultural College in what has been described as "the beginning of intercollegiate athletics in Florida."

College of Law

The College of Law of John B. Stetson University is Florida's oldest law school and was established in October of 1900. It was located in DeLand until the summer of 1954. At this time the College was moved to a new ten-acre campus in the Gulfport section of St. Petersburg, Florida. The new location provides ready access to the courts, agencies, and all institutional facilities of the entire Tampa Bay metropolitan area.

Since 1909, as provided in a statute enacted in that year, this law school has maintained the course of study approved by the Supreme Court of Florida, so that graduates of the school have been admitted to the Bar of Florida without the necessity of taking the bar examination. For many years the school has been on the accredited list of the American Bar Association and has been a member of the Association of American Law Schools. These two associations have been the primary forces in the improvement of legal education and are the two recognized accrediting agencies of law schools.

The law course is based primarily upon the study and discussion of reported cases, supplemented by lectures and assigned readings in textbooks and legal periodicals. The faculty endeavors to give such training and instruction as will fit young men and women for the active duties of the office and courtroom. At the same time effort is made to impress upon the students a high conception of the ethics of the legal profession, without which, knowledge of the law may be detrimental both to the individual and to the State. Effort is further made to search for and evaluate the philosophy which underlies the various principles of law.

On March 8, 1958, Governor LeRoy Collins gave the address at the ceremonies dedicating the new Dana Law Library. Charles A. Dana, the New York philanthropist, was among the distinguished persons present for the occasion.

Message from the Editors

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the student body of Stetson University for the honor of compiling the 1958 HATTER. We realize the impossibility of adequately representing every phase of all of the activities at Stetson University; however, we have made every effort to achieve perfection and we hope that this yearbook will help each person here to retain some of the pleasant memories of Stetson University and 1957-58.

We realize that a "Togetherness" and "Oneness of Ideal" is needed for a good publications of any kind. Consequently, the yearbook would not be a reality without the invaluable help of the staff which includes Sara Wilkerson, Introduction; Classes Editor, Patsy Morgan; Freshman Class Editor, Suzanne DeLettre, Sophomore Class Editor, Sally Boreau, Junior Class Editor, Carol Webb, Senior Class Editor, Bill Rhinehart; Hall of Fame, Mary Sara Carter; Vanity Fair, Anita Anderson; Administration, Ann Anderson; Activities Editor, Marcia Farragher; Greek Editors, Betty Sharpe and Art Dasher; Organizations Editor, Mary Leslie Addison; Snapshot Editor, Gail Compton; Sports Editor, George McLarry; Military Editor, George Owens; Layouts, Judy Ross; Copyists Marilyn Lazarus and Carolyn Miller, Secretary to Business Manager, Joanne Owens, and assistant Business Manager, Bob Sullins. We would also like to thank Mr. Blain Taylor who is in charge of publications at Stetson University for his many hours of guidance.

It has taken a lot of work to put out this annual but our only hope is that you, the student body, will enjoy and treasure it as much as we treasure the honor of being chosen to put it out.
